We are the world
Who wrote it and sang it?

The writers of this song were Lionel Richie and Michael Jackson and it was produced by Quincy Jones and Michael Omartion. There were 21 singers: Lionel Richie, Stevie Wonder, Paul Simon, Kenny Rogers, James Ingram, Tina Turner, Billy Joel, Michael Jackson, Diana Ross, Dionne Warwick, Wilie Nelson, Al Jarreau, Bruce Springsteen, Kenny Loggins, Steve Perry, Daryl Hall, Huey Lewis, Cindy Lauper, Kim Carnes, Bob Dylan and Ray Charles. They sang at least one line and I quoted them in the order they sang.
Why this song was written?

This song was written to stop starvation in Africa especially in Ethiopia where 1 million people died. The idea came in Harry Belfonte's head because he was looking for a long time to produce a song which was sang by the most famous 80's singers. He intended to distribute all the money to an organization which was called United Support of Artists for Africa (USA for Africa).

Up to 20 millions copies were sold and it generated $63 millions for humanitarian help.
Why did I choose this song.

I chose this song because it was the first time that so many artists met to work together for a good goal, not only to earn money for themself.

Because it's easy to remember, we can sing it even if we don't know the lyrics well. It's like an anthem. It was included a second time after the earthquakes in Haiti on January 12th, 2010.
My opinion for this song?

 maç It's the most beautiful song than I have ever heard in my life. It's not like the other songs that we can hear nowadays with singers who just talk about drugs, alcohol and sex.

 maç This song has a real goal. Make money for humanitarian cause, not for ourselves.
